Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 24, 2011, Don Detampel resigned from Zayo Group LLC's (the "Company's") Board of Directors, effective immediately. Mr. Detampel's voluntary resignation was a result of his pursuit of alternative endeavors which could result in constraints on his time and potential business conflicts. There were no disagreements between Mr. Detampel and the Company or any officer or director of the Company which led to Mr. Detampel's resignation. Mr. Detampel acted as one of Zayo's first two independent directors and served on the Board of Directors since July 2, 2010. With the resignation, Mr. Detampel also resigned from his role as Chairman of the Company's Compensation Committee and as a member of the Audit Committee.

The Company issued a press release announcing the resignation of Mr. Detampel on March 28, 2011. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

DON DETAMPEL TO BE REPLACED ON ZAYO GROUP BOARD

Due to Potential Conflict Associated with Executive Position at Charter Communications

LOUISVILLE, Colo. – March 28, 2011 — Zayo Group announced today that Don Detampel has resigned his position as Director due to potential conflicts associated with his recent appointment to Executive Vice President at Charter Communications. Mr. Detampel was one of two independent members of Zayo Group’s board. Rick Connor, the other independent director, is chairman of the Audit Committee and is a member of the Compensation Committee. Zayo Group will seek to replace Mr. Detampel with an independent director over the next several months.

Don Detampel joined Zayo Group’s board on July 22, 2010. As part of his board responsibilities, Mr. Detampel was chairman of the Compensation Committee and a member of the Audit Committee. Subsequent to joining Zayo Group’s board, Mr. Detampel joined Charter Communications as Executive Vice President and President, Commercial Services. At the time, the directors of Zayo Group considered whether Mr. Detampel’s position at Charter represented a conflict with his Zayo responsibilities. The group concluded it desired for Mr. Detampel to maintain his position as a Zayo director, but the question of conflict would be revisited over the subsequent six months as both Mr. Detampel and the Zayo directors gathered additional information.

In recent weeks, Mr. Detampel assumed additional responsibilities within Charter Communications. Due to a combination of constraints on Mr. Detampel’s availability and potential business conflicts, Mr. Detampel and the Zayo directors agreed it would be best if he resigned from the Zayo Group board.

“Don’s vast experience in the telecom and Internet industry was very valuable to Zayo’s board and management team,” emphasized Dan Caruso, President and CEO of Zayo Group. “As a director, he will be genuinely missed. As a friend and business colleague, I look forward to continuing to benefit from Don’s wisdom and know-how.”

“I enjoyed being part of Zayo Group, and I am confident that the company will continue to do well for its stakeholders,” added Mr. Detampel, “Though business conflicts prevent me from continuing in my role of Zayo Group Director, I look forward to seeing the ongoing development of the Charter and Zayo commercial relationship.”

Mr. Detampel’s resignation was effective March 24, 2011.

About Zayo Group

Based in Louisville, Colorado, privately owned Zayo Group (www.zayo.com) is a leading provider of fiber-based bandwidth infrastructure and network-neutral colocation and interconnection services.
